

First Annual "Bocce With the Brothers" Held at Villa Penna in Sterling Heights

On Friday, Jan. 25 at Villa Penna in Sterling Heights the First Annual "Bocce With the Brothers" was held at Villa Penna in Sterling Heights, sponsored by George Penna, Sandy Polidori, Frank Penna, Anthony Apone, Jim Schmelzer, elitefoto.com, and Mike Schodowski, shelving.com. Proceeds of over $16,000 were raised for the Capuchin Ministries.

1.) Shown (from left) Brother Jerry Smith, director of the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, Father Bede Louzon, Mike Schodowski, George Penna, Brother Joe Monachino, Father Philip Naessens and Brother Larry La Cross. 2.) Entertainment was provided by the Johnny Trudell jazz band, Edgar Wallace and Noel D'anna. Shown is Johnny Trudell. 3.) Coffee was donated by Java Java; shown is Loula Aiello, serving. 4.) Three paintings were donated by Dave Santia which were auctioned off, the proceeds all going toward the soup kitchen. There was also a silent auction. 5.) Sandy Polidori and Brother Larry Webber, director, Solanus Center. 6.) Brother Jim Hast, associate director, Solanus Center, throws a bocce ball. 7.) Sal Cuccia with Brother Richard Merling, director, Solanus Guild. Not shown: Dan Schwartz of Deutsche Family Wine & Spirits, who donated much of the wine for the event.

Photos supplied by ELITEFOTO.COM