Mark Costello Elected To Provincial Council

Capuchin friar Mark Costello was recently elected to the Capuchin Province of St. Joseph.

As a member of the Provincial Council, Costello will provide leadership, counsel, educational opportunities and spiritual and secular advice to other members of his order.

Costello was ordained to the priesthood in 1991. He recently celebrated 25 years with the Capuchin order. He holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in interior architecture from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. He worked as a liturgical design consultant, including contributing to the design of St. Fidelis Friary and St. Bernadette's Church, both in Appleton.

He moved to Chicago in 1994 to establish the new community of St. Clare and to supervise the renovation of a former post office into a Capuchin friary. He has designed numerous liturgical furnishings, liturgical glassware and liturgical vestments. He also served as director of post-novitiate formation.

Costello was born and raised in Fond du Lac. He graduated from St. Patrick grade school, St. Mary's Springs High School and Marian College, all in Fond du Lac. His parents are James and Betty Costello of Fond du Lac.
