CAPUCHIN SOLANUS CENTER TO HOST FREE CONCERT EVENT, MARCH 19

Detroit, MI (February 14, 2005) – A Lenten Piano Concert featuring Leo Van Asten will be held March 19, 11:30 AM, at the St. Bonaventure Chapel, 1740 Mt. Elliott Street, Detroit.

Leo Van Asten, a composer, teacher, and concert pianist, will be performing a concert in keeping with the Lenten and Easter seasons, weaving favorite hymns, traditional classical and sacred melodies along with select original works.

“This is a special opportunity to observe the Lenten season,” John Truitt, organizer and Saint Lawrence Seminary alumnus, observed. “Leo Van Asten is a tremendous talent. The setting of St. Bonaventure Chapel will provide us with a contemplative environment as we enjoy this musical ministry.”

The public is invited to attend. There will be no charge. Following the concert, tours of the Chapel and the Solanus Center will be available. The public will also be able to learn about St. Lawrence Seminary, a unique Catholic High School and a Capuchin ministry located in Mt. Calvary, WI. This event is being hosted by the SLS Alumni Association.
